

The map shows the Aargau region in Switzerland, with numerous sampling locations marked by blue dots. Two specific locations are highlighted with red dots and labeled '1' and '2'. The map includes geographical features like rivers (Aare, Reuss) and various towns and villages. The legend indicates that blue dots represent 'Sampling locations' and red dots represent 'Reference locations'.

(C) OpenStreetMap contributors