

The map displays the Aargau region with 9 numbered clusters of points. The clusters are distributed across the region, with some near the Aare river and others in more rural areas. The points are color-coded: 1 (red), 2 (blue), 3 (green), 4 (purple), 5 (orange), 6 (yellow), 7 (brown), 8 (pink), and 9 (grey). The map includes labels for various towns and geographical features, such as Bachagger, Feldhof, Späggagger, Gigerüü, Lehmgrueb, Broor, Haldenhof, Rossweld, Kappeliraa, Heiligschläc, Saggholz, Rooti Grueb, Mettele, Lärchenhof, Bologgete, Lautenbreite, Luutebraate, Tannenhof, Neuhaus, Freidberg, Wertbühl, Waldau, Gruebenau, Aeuli, Sange, Groos, and Sonnenhof. The Aare river is shown flowing through the region, and several lakes and ponds are marked.